HERCULANEUM HALF DAY

EID53

Embark on a fascinating half-day adventure to explore the incredible archaeological site of Herculaneum, one of the most significant remnants of the ancient Roman world. In 79 A.D., Herculaneum, along with Pompeii, was tragically buried by a catastrophic eruption of Mount Vesuvius. However, unlike Pompeii, Herculaneum was engulfed by a massive surge of mud and lava, preserving the site in a way that offers a more vivid snapshot of Roman life.

The unique nature of Herculaneum's burial means that the site is in remarkably better condition than Pompeii, with wooden structures, furniture, and even food remnants preserved. Your journey begins with a pick-up from your hotel or meeting point around 8:00 am, followed by a comfortable transfer to the Herculaneum archaeological site. Once there, you'll be greeted by a knowledgeable local guide who will lead you on a two-hour walking tour through the ancient streets, villas, and public spaces of Herculaneum. After the tour, you'll have time to reflect on the incredible history you've just uncovered before departing for Sorrento, where you'll arrive by about 1:00 pm

HERCULANEUM EXPERIENCE

EID81

Take the time during your stay to visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Herculaneum, one of the few ancient cities that can still be seen in much of its original splendor, lost, along with Pompeii, in the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius in 79 AD.

Pick up from the hotel/meeting point and transfer by bus to the vineyard "Cantine Sorrentino" for an easy lunch.

After the light lunch, transfer to Herculaneum site where you will meet the guide.

Start a 2 hours walking tour of the ruins of Herculaneum, the splendid city founded by the Greeks, covered by lava and preserved in time. You'll also see the remains of thermal baths, shops, and even the skeletons of those who sought refuge in the town's coastal area, offering a poignant reminder of the disaster. HERCULANEUM VESUVIUS

EID232

Alongside its sister city Pompeii, Herculaneum is a fascinating UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Nestled by the tranquil coastline, Herculaneum splendor has been captivating the hearts of visitors for decades.

The city boasts hidden treasures that are off the beaten path. Your local guide will bring to life the remains of boat houses, marble floors, and wall paintings, allowing you to take a step back in time to Herculaneum's final days.

Stop for lunch will be at a friendly, local restaurant, serving up Italian classics.

You'll then head up the mighty Mount Vesuvius the only active volcano in mainland Europe.

With its eye-catching panoramic views of the Mediterranean sea and Naples, it's well worth the trip.

VESUVIUS WITH LUNCH AT VINEYARD

EID233

This full day tour has a perfect pairing – a climb up to the crater of Mt Vesuvius followed by lunch and a tasting at a vineyard that grows Lacryma Christi wine. It'll bring you closer to the awesome intensity of mainland Europe's only active volcano and amaze you with life borne out of its volcanic soil.

First, you'll travel by bus up the first 1,000 meters of Vesuvius – the active volcano that buried Pompeii in AD79 and still looms large over the Gulf of Naples. You'll finish the journey to the crater on foot.

Then, you'll discover all there is to know about a type of Neapolitan wine that's grown on the slopes of the volcano, Lacryma Christi. You'll visit a vineyard to tour the winery before enjoying a light lunch washed down with its very own, finest black label vino. Return to Sorrento in early afternoon.

A TASTE OF NAPLES STREET FOOD TOUR

EID28

Naples is rich in heritage and culinary culture – and this tour combines both to give you a real taste of the city. You'll dip in and out of old town eateries, bakeries and markets sampling Neapolitan delights in edible and edifice formats.

After a drive from Sorrento about 1 hour and half, you'll arrive in the charming historic centre of Naples.

Visit the 'Christmas Alley of Naples – Via San Gregorio where you will find the famous hand crafted presepe scenes. We'll then stroll past the Royal Palace, the church of San Francesco di Paola in Piazza del Plebiscito and towards the lavish Galleria Umberto I as well as Europe's oldest opera house.

Our destination is the loud and proud Pignasecca street market and the narrow Spaccanapoli – the 2km-long alley that bisects the old town – while munching on a Cuoppo di frittura' during the walk.

There's also a stop to see the otherworldly Via Toledo metro station and a chance to try a tasty sfogliatella pastry.

AMALFI & CETARA EVENING TOUR

EID50

This evening guided tour to the town of Amalfi and the out-of-the-way village of Cetara has been specifically designed to dodge the tourists, giving you a more relaxed look at some of the area's main attractions. Departure in early afternoon from Sorrento. The tour's led by an expert local guide with extensive knowledge.

When you arrive in Amalfi, you'll follow your guide around the preserved Arsenale della Repubblica. This 1,000-year-old shipyard was originally used to fix galleons and other kinds of boats, but today it's one of the town's top museums.

Shop for locally grown limoncello and coral jewelry during some free time in Amalfi.

After free time, hop on a ferry for a 40-minute journey to the village of Cetara.

Very few tours in this part of Italy stop here, so you'll be one of the few who'll get to see its pastel-painted houses and Roman-era landmarks up close. You'll have some free time to explore or relax on the sandy beach.

The village is particularly famous for its seafood, especially anchovy sauce – ancient Romans settlers came up with the recipe. Return to Sorrento about 10:30 / 11:00 pm.

THREE TENORS IN SORRENTO

EID67

Prepare to be swept away by the enchanting voices of the three tenors: Vincenzo Tremante, Alessandro Fortunato, and Francesco Fortes. Accompanied by the elegant sound of a string quartet and piano, this extraordinary concert promises an unforgettable musical journey through the masterpieces of Italian opera and the timeless beauty of Neapolitan songs.

The concert begins with a spectacular selection of some of the most famous and beloved Italian opera arias. The tenors will perform pieces from iconic operas such as Tosca, L'Elisir d'Amore, Rigoletto, and Turandot. These operatic gems will evoke deep emotions, showcasing the brilliance of the greatest composers in history.

In the second part of the concert, the mood shifts to the heart and soul of Naples, as the tenors bring to life some of the most cherished Neapolitan songs. Hear the heartfelt strains of "O Sole Mio" or the famous "Torna a Surriento", and other classics that capture the joy, warmth, and vitality of Southern Italy.

Held in the stunning Concert Hall of the Correale Museum of Terranova, located in the heart of Sorrento, this performance takes place in a setting that adds to the magic of the evening. Don't miss the chance to be part of this remarkable event, a celebration of Italy's rich cultural heritage and musical legacy.

VINEYARD EXPERIENCE

EID939

Visit the vineyard by the sea at the Cape of Sorrento and taste Sorrento wines accompanied by a selection of cheeses, cured meats and local dishes at the wonderful Relais Regina Giovanna.

An immersive experience in the nature and food and wine culture of Sorrento. A transfer will take you from the winery to the vineyard. Together with a guide, we will walk through the vegetable garden with its organic crops and lemon grove, visit the Roman-era Cisterns and arrive at the vineyard that produces the Aglianico and Piediroso of our Penisola Sorrentina DOP Sorrento. During the walk we will discover the wonders of local biodiversity, the secrets of viticulture, stories and legends related to the area and much more. At the end, a guided tasting of six wines is followed by a light lunch/dinner, which takes place under the pergola of the Pane & Olio restaurant. Accompanied by the Regina Giovanna light lunch featuring locally sourced, zero-kilometer products: cherry mozzarella, flavored ricotta, a trio of cheeses, a trio of cured meats, mini quiches or savory pastries, bruschetta, and a traditional first course.

A scenic view of a terrace with classical statues and a domed pavilion overlooking a valley and mountains. The terrace is paved with light-colored tiles and features a series of white marble busts on pedestals along the edge. To the left, there is a domed pavilion with arches. The background shows a valley with a town and a blue sea, surrounded by mountains under a blue sky with light clouds.
